Db-Line was founded in 1991 as a wholesaler of videogames products in the retail channel. In the following years, the Company was able to evolve, succeeding in becoming one of the reference realities in Italy: aiming at the acquisition of exclusive distributions with a strong appeal, both in software and in accessories and gifts and following the needs and changes of the market. It is structured to offer services such as GamePeople, a franchising chain with 80 stores founded from Db-Line in 2001 and the business model Category Management.
